Occurred on Tuolumne Rd N, Tuolumne. Rp's estranged husand, is threatening to take their 2 yoa child out of state.

Summary

RP is upset that her and her ex, just become the ex, have been arguing for the last 3 days and the ex has their child and is threatening to leave the state. RP believes it is a federal violation. I confirmed their is no custody papers and RP explained that is correct as there has not been enough time, they have been seperated for 3 days. I explained both have equal rights and at this point there is nothing LE can do, it is a civil issue and she needs to contact a lawyer. RP argued but eventually understood we can not help at this time; it would be illegal. related inc #117. I spoke to the male half who said his ex was just caught cheating and was told to move out. They have argued but he has no intention of violating laws. He said he has no family in this state and told his ex he will be moving out of the state but agreed he will do it lawfully. nfa

Occurred on Pleasant View Dr, Groveland. Rp in 415v w/husband and husband's parents. estranged husband dropping off the 2 children: 7you and 11yoa children; per , children don't want to leave the veh. //1728hrs, all parties still at the residence.

Summary: Contacted all parties involved. The Rp got upset because her husband whom she has a TRO against, showed up after being allowed to stay there the past few nights. They began to argue and the Rp got very upset. The in laws showed up to drop the children off whom they see every weekend to supervise the visitations for the husband. The in laws how upset the Rp and refused to leave the kids with her. The Rp then got very upset and began yelling in the in laws faces. The kids got scared and would not get out of the vehicle. I told the Rp that she allowed the husband to violate the TRO she put on him by allowing him to stay at the house. I told her she needs to control her temper and watch what she does in front of the children. I told the in laws that I would document this because they want to start a paper trail to protect there grand children. I talked to the children that if they ever feel unsafe or scared to call us by either going to the PML front gate or to a neighbors house.

Occurred on Chukar Cir, Sonora. Rp reports she and her neighbors were threatened by woman with a stun gun; the resp is upset over the sale of a dog; resp is back at her apartment, rp does not know the address but rp could point out the residence

Summary: The Rp had already left for the night so I spoke with the other parties that were there. They claimed there neighbors who were suppose to pay for a dog came down and started an argument and then pointed a Taser at them and threatened them. I talked to the party who were being accused of pointing a Taser. They said that there was never an agreement to pay for the dog and that the party of the Rp insisted that they take the dog. They then have been getting harassed by people throughout the complex, calling them dog thieves and scum bags. The resp went down to the other parties house tonight and wanted to end this by talking like adults. They admitted there was arguing but they denied every pointing a Taser at them. They stated they don't own any weapons except a baseball bat. They told me that a couple neighbors witnessed the altercation. I went and spoke with them. She said that she never saw them point anything at them or hear her say they were going to Taser them. I told both parties that if this continues they need to file a TRO against each other and if they want to get paid for the dog, then they are going to have to handle that in Civil Court.

//1727hrs The rp had to leave.
