- 12:05 ANY CIVIL PROBLEM 1603290036
Occurred on Fuller Rd, Twain Harte. Rp rpts she was denied custody and wants to press charges immediately
- RP stated she was supposed to have visitation on Easter Sunday per a court order. But denied her visitation. In addition, both parties are to split the spring break holidays, which was from 3/21-3/27. The RP claimed she did not have the kids the entire spring break because is claiming the order she has is not valid. I checked the order she was able to provide and it did state they are to split custody during spring break. However, Easter is not listed in the holiday visitation
- I later made contact He claimed the order that has is not valid because his lawyer never signed the order during mediation on 3/1, because they could not agree. He does not know how the order got signed by a judge but, on 3/14 the judge rejected the order. I asked about the spring break visitation. He stated had them from 3/21-3/24 and us lying about not having them the entire break. was able to show me text message between him and which showed she had the kids from the 21st to the 24th. also stated she had the kids the entire week prior (3/17-3/21.) was later able to provide with the order filed on 3/1 which shows the judge had rejected the order. I Later contacted and asked her again if she did not have her kids the entire spring break. she said, "Well, I had them off and on." I reminded her that she told me she didn't have them at all and I saw the text message that proved she was lying about not having the kids at all. she became defensive and stated this was not fair because she only had the kids three out of the seven day vacation. I told her the vacation days were an odd number and one would have one more visitation day than the other. also denied having the kids from 3/17-3/21. At this time, I could not determine if a court violation had occurred at this time. .
