Rp says that he does this every night until 5 AM. //2355hrs Rp called back and advised someone is screaming for help and banging on the walls. Rp advises sometimes there is an older male at the residence but she does not know who is screaming.

//S-11, We arrived on scene and could hear a male subject yelling obscenities and thrashing around in an upstairs bedroom. Made mentions of guns and knives but mostly rambled on in unintelligible sentences. Subject was yelling for us to come save him in his bedroom from monsters and yelled he had knives trying to ward them off. Subject told us his name was "Mark", we later learned it was . Subject was very uncooperative and refused to come down and talk to us. House was all locked up. He mostly yelled profanities at us and threatened to kill us while also yelling at us that we needed to save him. We could also hear him hammering what we believed to be nails into his bedroom door frame (barricading), which he has apparently done on other calls of this same nature. Dispatch informed me this subject has reported things like this in the past, people in his house, assaults, etc., that have been unfounded. Eventually talked to the RP (who didn't want contact) and she told me they believed there was another male inside possibly being assaulted earlier. RP was beside herself with and had 4 kids in the home trying to sleep through this. This is a duplex and the bedroom was in shares the wall with her kids room. RP stated does this often but tonight has been the worst. We eventually got a response from a second male subject in a downstairs bedroom who was also uncooperative and told us to go away. Subject didn't appear to have been assaulted or in need of our assistance. was obvious 5150 W&I but I did not want to force our way into his house and possibly risk a deadly force situation over a noise complaint, and him having an episode in his bedroom by himself. RP understood when I told her this but I also told her actions were unacceptable and I would try to help the neighbors out by following up with the landlords. Learned from other neighbors has been served with eviction papers from Mother Lode Properties and is expected to move out soon. I am also going to call Mother Lode Properties and let them know what is putting his neighbors through. I will be calling Behavioral Health and reporting this incident to them in hopes of getting them to check into . This incident had 4 Deputies tied up for over an hour and a half. Subject is already in RIMS with an Officer Safety attached to him from prior contacts that he answers his door with a knife. NFA for now.//. . Disposition: Log Note.
