Spoke to RP by phone at 2120 hrs, she requested we call back in 10 minutes because she was driving. -1665

RP had a backpack belonging to an "acquaintance" because it was left in the RP's vehicle. The RP gave the backpack to a friend of hers to give back to the "acquaintance", but the RP has no idea if it got returned. The RP said the "acquaintance" and her friends "trapped" the RP in with their vehicle, causing her to panic, try to escape, and cause a traffic collision. The RP immediately went to CHP in Jamestown to report the incident and the "acquaintance" followed. RP stated CHP handled the collision, but the "acquaintance" has since called the RP 2 or 3 times and made threats to harm the RP if they did not get the backpack back. At the time I spoke to her, the RP had not received any additional calls for at least 2 hours. The RP was very vague about who was involved and why the backpack was such an issue. The RP wanted advice about what to do, and was told to avoid contact with the other involved parties. The RP was additionally advised to notify TCSO if she continued to receive phone calls or threats. -1665. . Disposition: Log Note.
