Occurred on Pine St, Tuolumne. RP inquiring if it's ok for neighbors video surveillance to be pointed at her kids window.
Summary: RP wanted to know if it was illegal for her neighbor to have surveillance cameras pointed at her house. The cameras in question were recently installed and are mounted on the RP's neighbor's home. I informed the RP that it was not illegal for the fixed surveillance cameras to point in the direction of her house. I told the RP that anything the cameras recorded through open windows could be seen by someone walking past as well, so window blinds or curtains would be a good idea to ensure her privacy. RP believed the cameras were related to suspected drug activity at the house and stated there was a lot of traffic in and out of the residence. RP was concerned that there might be issues with the activities in the residence and requested extra patrols. RP identified the neighbor in question as and said he lived at -1665. . Disposition: Log Note.
