Occurred on Campo Seco Rd, Sonora. Rpts susc. rp was with a group of children at a ranch field trip when a neighbor started video taping all the children and making threats.
Summary: RP reported while supervising children on a field trip at a farm, a neighbor started filming them and called one of the adults a pedifile in front of the children. RP wanted to "file a complaint". I explained the legality of the situation and discussed a more appropriate route. RP understood and said she would advise any parents that wanted to pursue some kind of action. No laws were broken and the incident would be a civil issue. I spoke to one of the neighbors via phone who said they have had problems with the "farm" neighbors which is why they filmed them. The subject said they do not include children in the dispute and weren't filming the children. I advised of what was reported and explained no crime was committed but it was "inappropriate" and they may open themselves to a civil complaint. The subject understood and assured me a discussion would take place and they would not include children. nfa. . Disposition: Civil Problem.

Occurred on Milestone Dr, Modesto. Rp wants to report her 27 yoa son as missing. //dispatch left a msg on the sons cell phone.

Summary: RP wanted to report her adult son as missing as she has not seen him and he didn't return her call last week. I left a message for him and spoke to his manager who said he had been at work and this was not the first time the RP has done this. RP said her landlord evicted her for not following the rules. RP said she had told her landlord to stop collecting the rent from her son, even though he is in charge of her money, so that her son would be forced to give her the money to pay it so she could see her son. I explained her son has been at work which she did not believe because he didn't call her back and when she called his work last week he wasn't there. I suggested he might not have been there on that particular day and also he works graveyard shifts. I explained I left a message and his boss said they will have him call us when he comes back to work tonight to verify he is fine. No report was taken at this time due to verifying the subject was alive and well very recently.
