Occurred at Camp Tawonga on Mather Rd. , Groveland. RP req a 10-21 for poss security issue. Indian male keeps coming to their gate trying to access their property. strong accent drives Light Blue Prius. came 07/01 asking if they were Tenaya Lake, and RP explained how to get there. Then similar person came on 07/07 asked if they rented campsites, they declined him services and said he wanted to tour the facility. on 07/17 he returned and wanted the website to sign up for a tour. he asked again for a tour. Two males were in the car. The subject had been advised multiple times it was private property.

Summary: RP is reporting 2 males have come to their private property trying to get in over the last 3 weeks starting on July 1st. RP said one of the male's, with a heavy middle eastern accent, initially said he was looking for Tenaya Lake which is nowhere near the camp. They gave the subject directions and he left. The second time, on the 7th, the same male came back and asked to get in to camp and also stating he would like a tour. The same subject came back on the 17th again wanting a tour and also wanted their website. RP is concerned the subjects are casing the property as the same subject keeps coming back. An employee did see the "sky blue Prius" vehicle and saw the second male but was not able to get a better description. RP said the vehicle leaves before they can get to the gate. RP reported it to Forest LE who directed them to us. I advised I will place a copy in SIB and advise management and will request extra patrol. I also advised RP to call 911 if the subjects come back and we will get there as fast as possible. . Disposition: Log Note.
