Occurred on Campo Seco Rd, Sonora. Rp in the lobby to report 459, taken was her dl, car key fob.
Summary: RP was certain someone was entering her apartment and "messing with" her things. RP never had anything go missing except food and alcohol, and she could not be certain of those specific items or amounts. RP was also sure someone made a copy of her car key and used it to drive her car. RP has not seen anyone, or noticed her car missing, but her seat has been moved and the car itself was not always parked where she remembered parking it. RP uses a shared wifi system at her apartment, and is positive her cell phone and iPad have been compromised as well. RP was advised that she needed to monitor her credit information in case her information was compromised. RP was also told she could check with the local Chevrolet dealership to see if a duplicate laser key and fob were made. Occurred at Groveland Youth Center on Hwy 120. , Groveland. Child at the youth center just told rp that she ran away from home.
she had blood on her shirt. and self-inflicted cuts all the way up her arms. (not needing medical); lsw/whi shirt, plaid blk/whi pajama bottoms.
SUMMARY: I spoke to the RP who said the juvi was homeless, possibly under the influence, and a danger to herself. The RP believed the juvi was cutting herself in an attempt to commit suicide.
I spoke to the juv, who stated she has a problem with "cutting" but does not do it to commit suicide. The cut marks were superficial and scabbed over(by a few days according to the juv). Juv was not under the influence, but admitted to drinking at a party a couple days ago with friends. Juvi did not meet the necessary requirements to place her on a 72 hour hold.
I spoke to the legal guardian for the juv, and the guardian was ok with the juv staying with her friend, as long as she continued to check in everyday.
The RP was not satisfied with the juv not being taken for 5150, as she believed the juv was a danger to herself, and living a destructive lifestyle. I tried to explain I had no authority to take the juv or force the guardian to do something else. . Disposition: Log Note.

Occurred on Green Springs Rd, Jamestown. SEE ATTACHMENT

rp arrived back home and sees that both her husband is there in violation of TRO and his daughter is there .. and she is supposed to be service a move-out .

husband left in new dark gry dodge charger; his daughter still there and has not been served her move out.

Summary: I attempted to meet with the RP at her residence and was informed right when I arrived that she had just arrived in the lobby. I tried to make contact with the RP's daughter at the residence and was not successful. While returning to the Sheriff's Office to meet with the RP, I was diverted to another call. I attempted to make contact with the RP by telephone but could not reach her. A message was left for the RP. RP called back a short time later to discuss the issue. RP's husband, , was served the TRO at 0245 hours on 7/21/16 by a civil process server. RP said she recieved a text message from at 0315 hours about the TRO itself. RP also said she got home from work at around 1430 and saw and his new girlfriend at the RP's daughter's house, which is next door to the RP's residence. RP's residence is within 100 yards of her daughter's residence, making presence there a violation as well. I explained to the RP that there was no proof of the TRO being served to in CLETS, but the RP was certain she filed proof of service with the court. RP admitted did not speak to her at all when he left their daughter's house, and he left when the RP arrived home. I informed the RP that I would document the incident and provided an incident number. RP was advised to make certain proof of the TRO's service was filed with the court.-1665. . Occurred at Sonora Estates on S Airport Rd. , Columbia. Ref Inc # 1607210088 regarding welfare check...
Rp also mentioned that his shotgun was stolen out of the girlfriends truck while parked at the S Airport Rd address.
Summary: RP and his "girlfriend" provided conflicting information. When I made contact with the female, she stated she and the RP had split up almost a month ago and she did not know why he wanted her welfare checked. She also said she told the RP numerous times to stop contacting her and her mother, but he would not leave her alone. I asked the female about the shotgun, and she said it was definitely not stolen out of her truck. The female claimed she did not know what the RP had done with his gun. The RP originally told me the gun was stolen out of the female's truck while it was parked at the trailer, then later told me he took the gun out of the truck and put it in the residence but the female would not give it back. RP admitted he was still in possession of the female's dog, which she complained to me about while I checked on her. The RP was informed he and the female needed to sort out their property in a civil manner, and if she continued to keep his shotgun after he returned her dog he could inform the Sheriff's Office. -1665. .
