Occurred on Caylor Dr, Soulsbyville.
Rp rpts her son came home from visitation and there was a tracker in his back, rp states it was placed there by her estranged husband SUMMARY: RP's son came to her and asked her about an item he found in his backpack. RP looked up the numbers on the device and concluded it was a GPS tracking device. Her son became very upset. RP says her ex is tracking her because he is trying to prove that she lives with her boyfriend in order to reduce alimony payments. She said she has her own residence and her boyfriend has his own. This stress is creating an environment where she cannot function. I advised her to get a TRO and go back to court and let the commisioner know how stressful her situation is. I advised her there is no crime and added that if she receives a TRO she needs it to stipulate he cannot track or follow her. RP said she tried to talk to resp. and come to an agreement but he told her "No, I won't stop till this is over. I don't owe you anything." RP worried the resp.
will become violent and mentioned he owns guns. . Disposition: Civil Problem.
