21:15 FIGHT OR DISTURBANCE*1609180111

Occurred on Bald Mtn Rd N, Columbia. Rp states that her husband is heading over to her ex-husband house because her ex-husband threw rocks at her husbands car. Rp states that her husband is very upset and will probably start a 415

//2132 hrs rp says that her husband is back home and is not going to the residence. Veh/white gmc sierra

Summary: Per the rp, her ex dropped off their child at her residence after a visitation this evening. As her ex was driving down the gravel driveway, her husband was traveling in the opposite direction in his vehicle. At that time, her ex "peeled out" and "shot" gravel onto her husband's vehicle causing minor damage. The rp's husband briefly pursued her ex, but decided to avoid a confrontation and returned back to the residence. I later contacted the rp's ex and he acknowledged he dropped off his child at the rp's residence this evening. The ex said there was another vehicle traveling in the opposite direction as he was leaving the area, but claimed he was unaware who the driver was and denied he intentionally attempted to damage the rp's husband's vehicle. The ex explained he has ongoing custody issues with the rp and has court with her tomorrow morning. The ex believes the rp is "making things up" in an attempt to keep him away from his child.

Both parties were provided incident numbers for their records. . Disposition: Log Note.

Occurred on Mount Provo Rd, Twain Harte. ***10-21***

Rp states that he is supposed to return his daughter to her mother tomorrow and his daughter is crying and stating she does not want to go back because she doesn't feel safe

Summary: Contacted RP via 10-21. He advised his 12yoa daughter is crying and stating she does not want to go back to her mother's because she does not feel safe. The juvenile is saying her mother has strange men in and out of the house at all hours of the day. The juvenile does not feel safe with the strangers in her mother's home. The rp does not want to violate the court order but does not want to put his daughter into a bad situation. I advised him to contact the mother and attempt to explain the situation. I told him to go to the court house tomorrow and file an emergency custody order. I advised him that there are exigent circumstances to violating a custody order if he believes harm could come to the juvenile. He advised that the juvenile and mother have not been fighting and the juvenile has no reason to lie. I provided the RP my name and the incident number. . Disposition: Civil Problem.
